Green Investment Declaration

Make your money work for God's creation

This initiative has been developed by Operation Noah and JustMoney Movement, this initiative helps churches and faith institutions worldwide invest ethically in climate solutions for a greener future.

By signing up to this Green Investment Declaration, your church or organisation is not just having a direct impact through your investments but, through speaking publicly about it, you're also creating ripples throughout wider church and society encouraging others to do likewise.

Together we can play our part in the restoration of Creation, starting with our finances.

Investing for climate impact - event series

Operation Noah is developing plans for an exciting series of events for summer/autumn 2026 to inspire and equip church financial decision-makers to engage confidently with ethical finance and investing for climate impact. The events will bring together finance leaders, church treasurers, and grassroots eco-champions for dynamic half-day events - we hope - hosted across different denominations.

Each gathering will combine theological reflection, expert panels on investing in climate and wider ethical challenges, practical workshops, and a marketplace of green investment opportunities - creating a space where faith, finance and action meet. We're now seeking partners to help shape, host and promote these events, broaden their reach, and ensure they speak powerfully to the churches and communities you serve. We'd love to explore how we might work together!

Christian material to accompany NEB film screenings

If you're interested in helping to create a simple resource to support churches in connecting the National Emergency Briefing Film with their Christian faith, please contact clare.fussell@operationnoah.org get the ball rolling.

The joint Christian briefing for July's mass lobby came together pretty quickly, and hopefully working together we can produce another shared resource to help engage churches effectively.
